We Provide:

- 1) All materials and resources used during the seminar are used by the speakers. These materials and resources are provided to each registered attendee for use during the seminar. The attendees are encouraged to take these materials home for future review, consideration and as a personal resource.
- 2) Hospitality.

Reasons For the Seminar:

- A) To empower, educate and prepare the residents of Ontario before they may be called upon to arrange a commemorative event for a loved one.
- B) To explain a resident's rights, responsibilities and options related to this difficult topic.
- C) Provide practical knowledge so residents can make informed decisions if required to do so in the future.

Some Of the Topics Discussed Include:

- A) Who is the Bereavement Authority of Ontario and what do they do?
- B) What provincial act over sees the funeral industry in Ontario and what does the act say?
- C) Terms you need to know.
- D) What are the minimum services I must purchase for the final disposition of a loved one?
- E) What is estate planning? Why should I do this?
- F) Power of attorney for personal care. What is it?
- G) Last will & testament.

Many other items and topics are discussed during this informative seminar. You are encouraged to come to the event with questions and to ask additional questions after the presentation has concluded.
